

James Kenner

Vice President of Design

James is vice president of design. He joined EdR in 2012 to create the company's interior design department, establishing a quality standard at EdR's communities and providing top-notch services to our customers. He formerly was a partner at Inter-Logic Design, working directly on projects for major firms such as Hilton Hotels, IHG (Holiday Inn) and Marriott Corp. James was recognized by DHome Magazine as the Best Commercial Interior Designer in Dallas in 2007, 2008 and 2009. He was graduated from the Art Institute of Dallas with honors. He received recognition as a Most Distinguished Interior Design Alumnus in 2000. He is a member of the U.S. Green Building Council. James is a Registered Interior Designer (RID), a professional member of both the International Interior Designers Association (IIDA) and the American Society of Interior Designers (ASID). He is nationally certified by the National Council of Interior Design Qualification.