

Olan Brevard

Executive Vice President of Acquisitions and Off-Campus Development

As executive vice president of acquisitions and off-campus development, Olan Brevard is responsible for leading EdR's growth through the acquisition and development of off-campus collegiate housing assets.

This role also includes market investigation and the discriminatory disposition of assets, from time to time, in support of the company's overall growth strategy.

Olan has 38 years' experience at EdR, serving in both the property operations and real estate departments. He formerly was vice president of real estate, a role in which he monitored existing loans and led EdR's refinancing and new loan activities.

Olan received his bachelor of business administration, management in 1973 from the University of Memphis. He has a Tennessee Real Estate Broker's License and is a certified property manager (CPM®) by the Institute of Real Estate Management.