

Patrick Parsons

Vice President of Real Estate Development

Patrick came to EdR in 2013 as a financial analyst and development and acquisitions manager. His project experience spans more than $500 million in real estate acquisitions and developments with university clients, joint-venture partners and EdR's own portfolio. Prior to joining EdR in 2013, Patrick helped expand ServiceMaster's footprint through Mergers and Acquisitions prior to its IPO.

Patrick earned a B.B.A with a finance concentration from The University of Memphis. He also holds a Series 7 and Series 66 general securities and investment advisor license (both inactive).
