

Randy Simpson

Senior Vice President of Information Technology

Randy manages the company's corporate technology department. He came to EdR from Diversified Trust, where Randy was responsible for managing and overseeing the design and delivery of the company's client reporting systems, website, other information management systems and central operations department. Previously, he served as vice president of information systems for RFS Hotel Investors Inc. During his 10 years at RFS, he led the development and implementation of the company's information and reporting systems.

Randy is a graduate of the University of Memphis, earning a B.A. with a double major in finance and management information systems.